AMCHAM Libya Expresses its Condolences

The American Chamber of Commerce in Libya (AMCHAM Libya) expresses its profound condolences to the family and colleagues of U.S. Ambassador J. Christopher Stevens, FSO Sean Smith, and the dedicated American and Libyan consular staff who lost their lives in the deplorable attack on the U.S. Consulate in Benghazi on September 11, 2012.

"With his counterparts in the new Libyan government, Chris Stevens worked day-in, day-out to realize a vision of peace, prosperity, and stability in Libya and the region," said AMCHAM President Richard Griffiths. "We will stand by that vision and do our best to fulfill his legacy."
